

We as citizens of the state of Indiana are outraged at the attempt of these financial institutions trying to get around Indiana's Do Not Call list so they can invade our privacy and annoy us again with their unnecessary phone calls at all hours of the day and night. We signed up on the Indiana and national Do Not Call lists and installed a Teleshopper on our phone line to avoid these types of calls and want to keep it that way.